CHAPULTEPEC CANTERING.

TAKES THE NEW YEAR HANDICAP WITHOUT BEING EXTENDED.

A Little Rider Severely Injured-Ray Thomp son Sprints Fast-Great Crowd at City Park.

New Orleans, La., January 1 .- An accident which will probably terminate fatally for C. Baker, a little colored rider under contract to Thomas Kiley, cam in the fifth race and marred what otherwise would been considered a good day's sport. Bake had the mount on Harting, and the horse stumbled just as the barrier went up and threw him heavily He was carried from the track unconscious and taken to a local hospital. At a late hour tonight the attending physicians stated that he was suffering from concussion of the brain, and grave fears are entertained for his recovery.

The prospect that Chapultepec would be sent after stakes in the New Year Handicap, which fea tured the card, held down the number of starters and the seven that raced against Chapultepec might just as well have remained in their stables for all had of beating out De Mund's chance they flashy looking half-brother for first money. Cha pultepec dashed into a long lead at once, although er restraint, and won as his rider pleased from Hario, Woodlane under a sharp drive taking siort portion of the stakes from

The interest of the spectators today was chiefly centered in the opening race, in which an even dozen baby racers made their debut. Irfaneh, a good-looking miss by Mesmerist-La Cheviot, and ridden by Nicol, was the luckiest in getting away from the post and led the others to the finish. Mass, also lucky at the start, winner's closest pursuer throughout and held second place safe. Arionette, which had been showing speed in preliminary trials, acted green at the bar-rier and suffered from being bumped into at the start, but was good enough to take third place from E. Corrigan's Anne McGee. Gala, on account of her looks and fast trials, was extensively backed. but suffered from being crowded at the start and

Like the preceding races of this character, there was the usual display of lack of experience on the part of the several starters, and no true line as to racing qualities can be based on their showing this afternoon. Beau Brummel, at a ridiculously false price, had things his own way and won the closing race as his rider pleased. Today's attendance exceeded former New Year's day crowds here and the thirty-two layers did a big business. Jockey Nicol's victory on Irfaneh marked his

GLENECHO WINS THE FEATURE RACE. GOV. HUGHES IS HOSTILE TO RACING.

Good Beginning for Hildreth-Jockey Den nison Badly Injured-Record Crowd.

Los Angeles, Cal., January 1.-The record for big attendance at southern California tracks was broken today when a crowd estimated at between 11,000 and 12,000 visited Santa Anita Park. The big gathering can easily be accounted for by the fact that the tournament of roses and parade in Pasadena closed at noon and many of its specta-tors ran over to spend the holiday afternoon at Santa Anita Park.

The feature race of the day, the Rose Selling Stakes. was taken by Glenecho, a rank outsider in the betting. He was thought to have little chance by owner P. T. Chinn and his friends, but surprised them by dashing into the lead when the barrier went up and remaining there to the end, winning with comparative ease.

The racing was marred by what may prove to be a very serious accident to jockey Dennison. Samme. Cloud, on which he had the mount, crossed his legs at the start in the third race and threw him heavily, breaking his left arm. The boy is still unconscious and his injuries may prove fatal. The entry of Summer Cloud will be refused hereafter.

The draw-in today consisted of nineteen books. Sam Hildreth was successful in winning a purs with the first horse he sent to the post here, Valjean winning the first youngster race of the year with comparative ease.

CRACK JOCKEY SIGNS FOR AMERICA

January 1 .- The famous steeplechas jockey, Ernest Piggott, who has been riding with conspicuous success recently in France, has abandoned his intention of returning to England, at any rate for the present, having concluded arrangements to ride next year for Mr. Pfizer, an American gentleman, who was Col. R. Neville's racing partner in 1906 in Herculoid, Dick Roberts, Welbourne and other horses and in whose favor he refused several flattering offers from, among others, Davis' stable, M. Gaston-Dryfus and Mdme, Clement Procureur. Piggott has ridden upwards of fifty winners and in the existing dearth of capable horsemen at home, doubtless many owners here will regret his change of front.

Recommends Repeal of Percy-Gray Law to New York Legislature

New York, January 1.-Governor Hughes' mes sage to the legislature today attacks racing and asks the legislature to take action for the repeal of the Percy-Gray law.

He quotes Article 1, Section 9 of the constitution as amended in 1895, providing against bookmaking, pools and lotteries and says that the legislature passed a law the same year permitting bookmaking at authorized tracks where no record of bets was kept. He also quotes a decision of Judge Cullen, technically upholding the law and then goes on as follows

"A different question, however, is presented to the legislature in the exercise of its discretion and that is the question of legislative policy and of a substantial, and not a mere technical compliance with the explicit constitutional provision. The constitution makes it the duty of the legislature to enact appropriate laws to prevent pool selling, bookmaking and other kinds of gambling. Ex-perience has shown that the laws enacted have not recomplished the purpose which the constitution

"The evils and demoralizing influences, and, it may be added, the economic waste at which the oustitution aimed, exists under the law and, in fact, are stimulated and increased through its provisions. The discrimination in penalties now existing rests on no distinction that is justified to popular mind. Public sentiment is against such arbitrary distinctions, with the result that the laws against gambling outside of race tracks have been defied and the administration of the law has been brought into contempt.

"The constitution makes no exception of race tracks. I recommend that the legislature carry out the clear direction of the people without discrimination. In connection with the repeal of the existing exception, I recommend that the offences described in section 351 of the penal code should be punished by imprisonment, and that the alternative of fines should be abolished.

"The racing law provides for a tax of five per cent upon the gross receipts at trotting and running race meetings, which, under the agricultural law, becomes part of a fund for distribution each year among various agricultural societies in prescribed proportions. In order that there may be no diminution of the support upon which these societies largely rely, appropriations may be made for their benefit to the extent necessary to secure to them amounts substantially equivalent to the sums they heretofore have received. It is better that they should be supported directly than that the state should derive a revenue for this purpose through an indefensible partiality in the enforcement of the fundamental law."

This probably will bring up again the bill that was in the house last season, but did not get out. Some turfmen of influence regard this action of the governor as a serious matter and well calculated to break up the sport. They regret that the govlens," the "Nigger Mikes" and riffraff poolroom people, who are jubilant over his message, and with has entire disregard of the breeding interests and property values represented by the thoroughbred horse throughout the entire country.

Other horsemen pooh-pooh the proposition and re fuse to consider it as at all dangerous to the sport. One said: "It is not likely that W. K. Vanderbilt would be spending $150,000 this winter improving beautifying Sheepshead Bay unless he felt pretty sure of where he stood," and there you are.

ORBY OUT OF ALL HIS RACES.

London, January 1 .- Richard Croker's Orme Rhoda B. four-year old, Orby, the Epsom Derby winner of 1907, has been struck out of all engage ments in England. He did not have many and no good reason is given for the declarations out of those stakes in which he was entered. That the son of Orme is practically sound for racing purposes and there would be no doubt of his standing an other preparation if only he were in England but no Irishman claims that so far as training goes horse has anything like the same chance in Ireland as in England, and instead of thinking that Wool Winder was unlucky to be beaten for the Derby it is wondering what manner of horse Orby must be who could go over from Ireland to win it. Certainly none has seen anything like the best of him, though it may be that a mile and a quarter is his best distance.

Mr. Croker will make a colossal blunder if h retires this colt to the stud at four years old, for Derby victory is not a sufficient demonstration of his real merit, and as he can be trained next year if on suitable ground, there seems to be every reason why he should be given a chance to she what he can do when at his best. A match between Orby and Wool Winder is even being proposed, without much chance, however, of one being made.

$300 A YEAR FOR A RACE TRACK.

The modest way in which some race tracks are operated in Great Britain is illustrated by the cent lease of the Lanark, Scotland, course for fifty years at $300 per annum. Upon the ground, how-ever, a new course is to be laid out and new stands and offices erected. Lanark gets two days' raci 3, usually in October, during the legitimate season.

ARIMO BEGINS YEAR WELL.

WINS A RICH STAKE AT OAKLAND IN RUNAWAY FASHION.

Lee Rose Captures the Race for Two-Year-Olds-Gemmell's Impressive Performance-Miller Rides Poorly.

Oakland, Cal., January 1 .- Again did a horse trimph in a big stake at Oakland which had received his preparation at Arcadia, and had been sent here from the south especially to participate in its running. This time it was Arimo from R. F. Carman's racing establishment, now wintering in the south. The skillfully manipulated Spreckels-bred horse had been defeated so regularly of late by inferior borses, with the one exception of his last race, in which he beat only moderate opponents, that the local handicapper had been beguiled into tossing the gigantic four-year-old into the Christmas Handicap with the feather impost of 100 The rest was easy. Carman sent commission and his commissioners never stopped betting.

The knowledge was general that the owner con templated a huge plunge and the ring very promptly installed Arimo a favorite at 2 to 1 in a field of ten, including the best brand of handicap performers in local training. In the actual race the result was never in doubt. Burns urged his mount into the lend without delay and proc heart-breaking pace that at the end of six furlongs those behind him were hopelessly leg weary. This left the favorite to come home alone.

Trainer Blute had made no pretense of keeping his horse under cover, but told everybody within reach and under circumstances of the widest publicity. Arimo's success probably brought more financial benefit to the race-going public than any pre-vious winning coup of this winter.

Aside from the big stake fixture, the card was ood and in one respect uniquely interesting.

This was due to the first appearance under colors of the two-year-olds of 1908. A big field of eleven fine looking juveniles paraded for this race. Thomas H. Williams was represented by a grand looking chestnut colt by Fatherless-Aurie. biggest upset of the afternoon came with his defeat. more precocious opponent, in Lee Rose, took his measure and the race by a half dozen lengths, but this running will surely be reversed when they met again. Miller's efforts were beneath the level of a stable lad in skill. The public backed Blameless heavily and hissed the champion jockey for his inferior saddle work erior saddle work.

In Gemmell, winner of the closing race, was revealed a nearly high-class four-year-old. The time, 1:28$ for the difficult seven furlongs journey, extraordinarily fast.

The weather was perfect, the only drawback being the very muddy track. Eighteen thousand was the estimated attendance and forty-one books a tended to the wants of the speculatively inclined.

TANFORAN TRACK REOPENED.

San Francisco, January 1.—The officials of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club have met the well-founded complaints about the difficulty of properly fitting horses during the bad weather, and have put the Tanforan track in first-class shape for the accomodation of horsemen who may wish to take advantage of it in getting their horses ready for their engagements. Training is possible at all times at Tanforan, regardless of weather conditions, as the sandy main track never becomes bad, and in addition there is a sod training track. There is plenty of good stabling in and around the Tanforan track and owners are much pleased with the arrangement.

MOUNTAIN TO TAKE A REST.

New Orleans, La., January 1.—Jockey Geo Mountain announced late tonight that he wo stop riding here for the remainder of the season and return to Chicago on Saturday night. "I have not been in my best from lately and so have de-eided to quit and rest for a while," said Mountain. "The criticism I have been subjected to recently has also been discouraging to me. Perhaps with a rest of several weeks I will regain my best form and resume riding. My hasty decision to cease riding will probably cause talk to the effect that I was told by the judges here to quit, but this is not so. I am stopping of my own accord, feeling satisfied that I am in need of a rest."

GOSSIP OF THE ENGLISH TURF

Rhodora's Engagements this Year-Croker's Growing Estate-Colonel Walker Injured.

Rhodora, Mr. Croker's great filly, has been engaged in the One Thousand Guineas at Newmarket; $10,000 Hardwicke Stakes at Ascot; The Oaks at $10,000 St. George Stakes and $10,000 At lantic Stakes at Liverpool.

During the English racing season of 1907 John Reiff rode only six races in England, winning the Epsom Derby and Chester Cup, and finishing second in one of the principal handicaps.

The 1908 regular racing season begins at Lincoln March 23, which is almost identical with the opening time in America at Benning. The Derby is on June 3 at Epsom.

England's December weather was so bad that several of the steeplechase meetings of the south were abandoned, notably those at Windsor and

Carbine, which came with a flash as a sire last year, with Spearmint, Gingal, Foresight, Ramrod, Yellow Peril, Muscosa, Catapult and Haytor, has departed, leaving his mantle with his son, Spearmint, who begins stud life next year. That fine stayer, Mintagon, which won the Cesarewitch by half a dozen lengths in 1906, has been sent to the stud. The half-brother to St. Maclou (a good horse, which cost the Germans $80,000), is beautifully bred, quiet, good-tempered chestnut standing 16.1. A good chance will afforded him at Cobham Stud, for a number of approved dams of winners will be taken free. He will make a splendid mate for mares of Galopin Dead heats in hurdle races are not frequent, but that in the three-year-old selling hurdle race at Plumpton a few days ago was the second in two days.

the principal international races in France in 1908: June 7-Grand Steeplechase at Auteuil Sunday, Wednesday, June 10—Grand Hurdle Race at Auteuil; Sunday, June 14—Grand Prix de Paris; Sunday, October 4-Prix du Conseil Municipal; Sunday, June 16-Grand Prix de Deauville.

Mr. Richard Croker's Irish estate, Glencairn is situated about six miles from Dublin in a very delightful neighborhood, and immediately adjoins the Leopardstown race course. By making additions to landed possessions, Mr. Croker's farm cannot now be far short of 500 acres, his latest acquisition being about 100 acres, which are to be added to the stud farm.

Ormonde was never defeated on a race course He ran sixteen times and won $142,325 in stakes. Little Wonder, which won the Derby in 1840, was the smallest animal to win the race, being only fourteen hands three and one-half inches.

In summarizing the successful sires of the present season, Warren Hill, the excellent critic of the Sporting Life, writes:

"As matters stand, Persimmon, with Royal ream, Mountain Apple, Perrier, Royal Realm, Rushcutter, Sea King, Your Majesty, Pearl of the Loch, Persuasion, Burscough and others that ought to have won in the past season, looks like going to the head of the poll.

"Next I am inclined to place Gallinule, with White Eagle, All Black, Little Goose, Miranda, French Partridge, and all Mr. Gilpin's several other practical dark ones, such as Nelson, Rodney, etc., that are sure to win races.

"St. Frusquin I take dext, with Lesbia, Rhodora St. Cyril, Frugality, Dusty Miller, St. Ollalia, etc. Desmond must come next with The White Knight, Sir Archibald, Land League, Nairobi, Dripsey, Damage, etc.

"Between Isinglass, Cyllene, Martagon and Orme it is difficult to decide, and possibly in another letter I may find some down amongst the ranks that will rise above them. Anyway, all the above are beyond the reach of ordinary breeders, and my search for coming sires must be amongst the rest."

Colonel W. Hall Walker got a heavy fall while the Cheshire hounds last week, was severely hurt, though he will recover. Colonel Walker created a record last racing season winning the Gimcrack Stakes at York for the third year in succession, the successful animals Colonia in 1905, Polar Star in 1906, and Royal Realm in 1907. He headed the list of winning owners both in 1907, with a total of $89,552.50, and in 1905, with the huge sum of $128,435. He is much interested in horse breeding, and breeds most of the horses which carry his colors. He used to race extensively under National Hunt rules, and won the Grand National in 1896 with The Sourer.

The Jockey Club has created a new office of inspector of race courses, and appointed Colonel Eason Wilkinson, D. S. O., to it. The duties of the official will be that of examiner of courses, stands and general racing methods, and upon his report the Jockey Club will take action.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

W. C. H., Chicago. There was no action on the coming" bets on Footlights Favorite and Line of Life and both were void.

Frank W. G., Chicago. An entry is one or more horses and if a horse starts in the name of an entry backed, its running determines the bet.

J. B. Chicago. The bet lost. It was a stake race and anything Burlew & O'Neill started from their list of nominations was their entry. should have insisted on your parlay standing as you had it.

E. Howell, Chicago. Daily Racing Form prints a newspaper only. The jockeys and betting which come over its wires are for publication and cannot be obtained by any person at any price before the paper is published.

Daruma, suddenly improved, was outpaced for the first five furlongs, but moved up gradually in the final quarter and, showing great gameness under the whip, got up in the last stride of a fast finish. Orline came from far back in the final quarter and, finishing like a shot, just failed to get up. Barbette showed brilliant early speed, but tired badly in the final sixteenth. Royal River finished gamely and close up and the race should improve him. Sanfara showed speed, but tired, was short and will do much better presently.

Bright Boy, a bad actor at the post, ran a good race for three-quarters and tired. Granada had no mishaps. Okenite ran a bad race, was never prominent and can do better. Harting was crowded and knocked to his knees soon after the start, causing him to lose his rider. The winner was entered for $1,200; no bid.

Went to post at 3:31. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won easily; second and third driving. Chapultepe interfered sharply with Dew of Dawn and Woodlane soon after the start and, dashing into a long lead, was under restraint through the last half. St. Ilario, hard ridden, ran fairly close up for a half and then, moving up fast, wore down Woodlane and Dew of Dawn and was an easy second. Woodlane ran forwardly for the first three-quarters, but tired in the stretch. Dew of Dawn suffered from interference in the early stages and made a good effort for three-quarters. Banridge, under poor riding, was frequently buffeted about. Jennie's Beau came from a long way back in the last quarter and ran like a stayer. Ed Kane lacked early speed and was hard ridden all the way.

Scratched—72401°Miss Delaney, 107; 72475 Miss Mazzoni, 105.

Overweights—Banridge, 2 pounds; Ed Kane, 5.
